Hearing Date: June 26, 2009

Time: 9:00 a.m.

Judge: Hon. Jeremy Fogel

1 I, Colleen M. Kennedy, declare:

2 1. I am a member of the Bar of the State of California and am associated with 3 the law firm of O'Melveny & Myers LLP, counsel of record for Plaintiff eBay Inc.
4 ("eBay"). I submit this declaration in support of eBay's Consolidated Opposition to the 5 Motions to Dismiss the Second Amended Complaint by Defendants Digital Point
6 Solutions, Inc. and Shawn Hogan (collectively, the "DPS Defendants"); Thunderwood
7 Holdings, Inc., Kessler's Flying Circus ("KFC"), Brian Dunning, and briandunning.com
8 (collectively, the "KFC Defendants"); Todd Dunning and Dunning Enterprise, Inc.
9 (collectively, the "TD Defendants"); and the Motions to Transfer by the DPS Defendants
10 and the TD Defendants. I have personal knowledge of the facts set forth in this 11 declaration and, if called to testify as a witness, could and would do so competently.

12 2. Defendants' motions raise a number of factual issues inappropriate to a 13 motion to dismiss. Even if the Court chose to convert any of Defendants' motions to a 14 motion for summary judgment, discovery would be required on a number of facts
15 essential to any summary judgment ruling. A summary judgment ruling on the issues
16 raised by Defendants would require resolution of at least the following disputed factual
17 issues:

18 a. There is a factual dispute regarding the existence and terms of any 19 binding agreement between Defendants and Commission Junction, Inc. ("CJ").
20 Specifically, there are unresolved questions of fact regarding: (1) whether any binding
21 agreement was ever entered into between any Defendant and CJ; (2) which Defendants 22 entered into such binding agreements, if any; (3) when any such binding agreements were 23 executed; and (4) the terms of any such binding agreements. There is likely to be 24 evidence controverting Defendants' statements on these issues in light of the inconsistent
25 positions Defendants have taken in this litigation and in their separate litigation with CJ
26 (the "CJ Action"), as discussed in eBay's Consolidated Opposition to Defendants' 27 Motions to Dismiss and Motions to Transfer ("Opposition").

28 b. There is a factual dispute regarding whether, to the extent any

1 binding Publisher Service Agreement (“PSA”) existed between any of the Defendants and 2 CJ that contained a contractual limitations provision triggered by termination of the PSA, 3 such termination ever occurred. There is also a dispute of fact as to when any such 4 termination occurred, if it did. There is likely to be evidence controverting Defendants’
5 statements on these issues in light of the inconsistent positions Defendants have taken in 6 this litigation and in the CJ Action, as discussed in eBay’s Opposition.

7 c. There is a factual dispute regarding whether CJ had any authority to 8 release the claims asserted by eBay in this litigation through the agreement it entered into 9 with the KFC and TD Defendants to settle the CJ Action. Specifically, there are 10 unresolved questions of fact regarding: (1) whether any agreement exists that expressly 11 creates an agency relationship between CJ and eBay for purposes of litigation; (2) whether 12 eBay asserted any control over CJ during the course of the prosecution and settlement of 13 the CJ Action; (3) whether CJ representatives believed CJ was acting as eBay’s agent for 14 purposes of the settlement; (4) whether Defendants believed that CJ was acting as eBay’s 15 agent for purposes of the settlement; (5) whether any such belief was reasonable under the 16 circumstances; (6) whether any such belief was caused by some act or neglect by eBay; 17 (7) whether Defendants investigated the scope of CJ’s authority in connection with the 18 settlement; (8) whether eBay’s claims were discussed during the negotiation of the 19 settlement agreement; (9) whether CJ made any representations about its authority to 20 release eBay’s claims; and (10) whether the parties intended CJ’s release of its claims to 21 release eBay’s claims as well. There is likely to be controverted evidence on these issues
22 in light of the facts known to eBay and the positions taken in Defendants’ motions.

23 d. There is a factual dispute regarding the diligence of eBay’s inquiry 24 into Defendants’ fraudulent schemes and, to the extent Defendants claim that eBay was 25 unreasonable in relying on Defendants’ fraudulent representations, the reasonableness of 26 eBay’s reliance thereon. Specifically, there are unresolved questions of fact regarding: (1)
27 the investigation and other actions taken by eBay in response to various statements
28 regarding Defendants’ fraudulent schemes; (2) the difficulty of detecting such schemes;

1 (3) the technological and other methods used by Defendants to conceal their schemes; and 2 (4) the nature of the analysis undertaken by eBay that ultimately uncovered Defendants'
3 schemes. There is likely to be controverted evidence on these issues in light of the facts
4 known to eBay and the positions taken in Defendants' motions.

5 3. Many of the facts relevant to these factual disputes are in the exclusive
6 knowledge of Defendants and third parties, including facts related to any agreement
7 between Defendants and CJ, the termination of any such agreement, statements made 8 during the negotiation of the settlement of the CJ Action, and the nature of Defendants' 9 technological methods.

10 4. Discovery regarding the above-listed disputed factual issues has not been 11 completed for a number of reasons, most within Defendants' control. First, several of 12 these factual issues were raised for the first time in Defendants' recent motions to dismiss 13 and were unanticipated by eBay, including issues related to the purported termination of 14 the PSA and the settlement agreement between Defendants and CJ. Second, in response
15 to the discovery propounded by eBay to date, Defendants have asserted their Fifth 16 Amendment rights against self-incrimination and have also contended that the documents
17 responsive to eBay's requests are in the possession of the FBI and therefore unavailable.
18 Because Defendants have asserted their Fifth Amendment rights, because the TD and 19 KFC Defendants refused to provide testimony in the CJ Action based upon their Fifth 20 Amendment rights, and because certain of the Defendants have indicated their intention to 21 seek a stay of this action pending the resolution of the criminal investigation against them,
22 eBay expects that Defendants will continue to refuse to provide discovery responses, 23 including deposition testimony, on any subject until that investigation has concluded.
24 Third, discovery has not been completed in this action and is not currently scheduled to be 25 completed until November 20, 2009.
